Report-Writing Day Tomorrow – Student-Free Day
A reminder is extended to all in regards to tomorrow’s report writing day for staff. Please note that buses will not run tomorrow as the college report writing day is a student-free day across the college, with staff working on Semester One reports.

Loddon Shire – Strong Families, Strong Children
Today I am attending the Loddon Shire’s Strong Families, Strong Children forum in Serpentine from 10:00am to 2:30pm. I am quite excited by this initiative and look forward to again meeting with key stakeholders from across the Loddon Shire to work towards greater opportunity and outcomes for the youngsters in our shire.

Sister-School Promotion
Students who took part in the recent Turkish Sister-School Exchange further promoted our college and this specific exchange on Friday afternoon when they spoke for 1 hour on community radio station Phoenix FM. Hosts John and Janeen were amazed with the quality of conversation that took place across the hour and with the educational outcomes provided within the exchange. Later on in the year, John and Janeen are hopeful of having our sub-school and college leaders attend a further hour-long interview, possibly in Term 3.

Myself, Miss Pilkington and Mr Wilkinson also travelled to Melbourne on Monday evening to present our sister-school model/program to the Friends Of Gallipoli organisation in Bourke St. Representatives of this organisation along with RSL representatives from Melbourne and Warrnambool and another P-12 College Principal were in attendance to hear our presentation and participate in a question and answer session. We look to have found another Victorian P-12 College who is very keen to create a sister-school relationship with a college we visited in Malkara, Turkey. We are quite excited at this prospect and have thoroughly enjoyed promoting our great college and another of the terrific initiatives that we offer to our students!

Congratulations Mr Cameron and Family!
Congratulations are extended to our Middle Years Leader Mr Cameron on the recent arrival of a beautiful young daughter Adeline. We wish Mr Cameron, his wife Beth and children Max and Tabitha all the very best as they welcome a new addition into their family.

Holiday Works
It is very likely that the college will be shut to all these holidays as there will be a great deal of works taking place on various days across the two weeks. Further inspections of our termite affected areas are scheduled to take place, with building works on the Home Economics room, canteen and year 12 room to start as soon as the termites have been effectively eradicated. This now looks very unlikely to happen within the next month or two. On top of the works already mentioned, the college also has an arborist attending to prune some trees, and some comprehensive works to be done on the schools septic system. In short, the college is likely to be a hive of activity but unavailable for anything else during this time. This should have very minimal impact on members of the community, with the college opening again as per usual on day 1 of Term 3.

East Loddon Remembers – Exciting Project In The Making!
Together with the Loddon Shire, the college has an East Loddon Remembers project taking place near the entrance to the college, with initial preparations for this World War 1 feature to start during the upcoming holiday break. The project will be finished in November and will have an official opening/unveiling prior to November 11th. It was really exciting to see a range of senior-school students joining Mrs Clare to work on the initiative. Mrs Clare has lead this initiative from the beginning and we look forward to seeing the progress and finished product in November.

The Big Lift
Further to the works being carried out these holidays by private contractors, the college is excited to also be welcoming 40 students from Sydney University who will be assisting with minor projects on the morning of July 11th. This work will be discussed further at college council on June 13th, but will see our friends from Sydney assisting in general cleaning duties and minor works in return for a night’s accommodation and an evening meal. We are currently finalising plans for this event, but at this stage the minor works will be carried out between 8:00am and 12:00pm on July 11th. If you would also like to assist with this event, please make contact with myself or Mr Wilkinson in the college office. Further details will feature in the next couple of newsletters.

Loddon Shire – Assistance With Volunteering Feedback
Loddon Shire Council is currently asking the community to provide feedback on volunteering, via a short online survey.
Although this survey is available in hard copy, Council would like to ensure that all community members have an opportunity to provide feedback by following the link at the bottom of this email, and completing the survey.

For more information on this survey or the Volunteer Strategy, please visit their website www.loddon.vic.gov.au, contact them on 54 94 1200 or email loddon@loddon.vic.gov.au

I hope that you all have a great long weekend!
Steven Leed
Welcome back Sue Allen after your ankle snap and guess what?? It’s the long weekend whoooooohoooooo.

Thanks so much to the Queen of England for always having her birthday on a Monday in June, even though she was born 21st April. Who cares anyway? The important thing is, we get a long weekend. Also, students are not required at school tomorrow as we have a report writing day. This is the time of the year when teachers seek revenge for all the things that kids have done in the first half of the year. Reports will be submitted by the end of this weekend for proofreading, so unfortunately for most staff the four day weekend will probably be lost to the computer screen. Ahhh well, that’s why we get the big bucks.

I didn’t mention this last week but we had one of the largest morning teas ever provided by a group of visiting teachers last Thursday. Our student teachers put on a spread fit for a king or queen. (A very round king/queen at that). We were really lucky, first to have 5 student teachers attend our College for their placement, but then for them also to put on a spread like they did was awesome. Can I say also, that most of the food was handmade, so they must teach different stuff at Uni these days. Mr Lee however was caught cheating as his mum delivered what was possibly the best sponge cake I’ve eaten since my nanna died. (No offence to all of the other fine bakers in the district), it was awesome. Nearly as much cream as cake. It is a deliberate strategy of the school to have as many student teachers as possible, so that our school becomes well known amongst potential new teachers. This has and will continue to help us attract the best applicants when jobs are advertised.

On Monday night Mr Leed drove Miss Pilkington and I to a meeting of ‘Friends of Gallipoli’ in Bourke St, Melbourne, where we were guest speakers. The group was interested to hear of our connection with our sister school in Canakkale and also how our community supports this ongoing project. We really are taking the lead in this style of exchange and it’s great to have groups such as this, asking us now for our expertise on how to get such partnerships off the ground and then making them sustainable. This allows us to reflect a lot and in that, realise that we are doing some amazing things at our school. We stressed at the meeting the importance of involving the entire community in the exchange and I feel it is because so many people become involved with hosting, welcoming and helping with exchanges both ways, that the ongoing project is so successful. Please give yourselves a pat on the back.

Finally, unsung heroes...I don’t play favourites (actually I do, all the kids know that), but well done to everyone involved at Bears Lagoon Serp FNC for organising this weekend’s Love Your Sister campaign. Clearly this is a topic close to a lot of people as breast cancer is indiscriminate and touches so many families and friends. I reckon this is another example of the amazing things that a community can do when they work together. I know there will be others involved with this at BLsarp but I’m tipping Byrnsie and Pilko will be in the middle of it. Hats off to you all.

See you at Serpentine footy ground on Saturday

Mr Wilko.

ASSEMBLY NEWS

At our last assembly three of our Years 3/4 Humanities class delivered a speech relating to ANZAC heroes to our four key College values. Thanks to Mrs Clare for typing it up.

KEIRA:

Good afternoon students and teachers. This term the Grade 3/4s learned about the ANZACs and how they showed the 4 Rs.
Respect - Resilience - Responsibility - Relationships

EMMA: Our class all had a sheet that we had to use for research about one of the soldiers from East Loddon. On another sheet, we wrote about their childhood, when they were in the war and what happened after the war.

SIANNA: Our research was displayed at the ANZAC ceremony at school.

KEIRA: I researched Colin Hugh Kennedy from Mitiamo. He showed respect by wanting to go to war early to protect his country. His mother wrote a letter to let Colin go to war before he was 18. He also showed respect and was promoted in his job.

EMMA: I had Martin O’Donghue. He showed resilience by leaving his dad to go to war even though his mum had died when he was little. Lots of soldiers had to keep going even when things got tough.

SIANNA: I had Catherine Robinson and she was a nurse. She showed respect and responsibility by looking after injured or sick soldiers. Catherine also showed relationships by being friends with soldiers when they were sad and hurt.

ALL: Thank you for listening

Chloe and Angus presented their Humanities report at the P-12 assembly. Well done everyone.

Prep Sound in Focus
The sound in focus is ‘Pp’ as in ‘Pretty pink pig’.

Prep Words To Fluency
The words to fluency are ‘because’ and ‘said’.

Plastic Bags request
If you have some plastic shopping bags that you don’t need, we could certainly use them at our College Fair stall in September. Please send them along and we will store them.

Literacy Hints
Vocabulary Development
Please engage your child in conversation, introducing new words that will enrich their vocabulary. The words that become part of their oral language soon become part of their reading and writing. The use of high power words (WOW words) adds a new dimension to a student’s writing.

Speech- Please monitor your child’s speech and intervene when necessary

Slang- Through common usage, the slang ‘ya’ is replacing the word ‘you’, largely due to habit. It is important that we model and expect correct pronunciation. Please do everything you can to reverse this unfortunate trend. It is easy to excuse slang in the context of informal language but if used frequently it will impact on your child’s ability to use semi-formal and formal registers when they are required.

Sound substitution- Please listen to your child speaking and correct any substitutions, for example- ‘w’ for ‘r’ (rabbit becomes wabbit). This seriously impacts on spelling and if left uncorrected becomes a bad habit which is hard to eliminate.

Complete sentences- Children learn about sentence structure by listening to others and using simple grammatical rules. Some children have problems with sentence structure and produce incomplete sentences (using phrases). Don’t accept part sentences from school age children, insist that they use complete sentences. Remember that you remain one of your child’s most important teachers.

Year 10 Mock Interviews

My dad was really impressed with our lovely Year 10’s and how they conducted themselves in the interviews. He just loved his card and gift too.
YEAR 10 MOCK INTERVIEWS
Throughout the past two weeks all Year 10 students have been working on completing a cover letter and resume for their mock interviews that were last Thursday and Friday. These interviews provided us students with opportunities to develop further knowledge and skills in writing resumes, letters of application and undertaking interviews. Mock interviews were in preparation for our work experience in two weeks. We were all very nervous before our interviews but everyone did a fantastic job. Students took the interviews very seriously and received feedback from their respective panel members, who were Mr Vinnicombe, Mr Byrne, Sue Clay and Mary-Ann Sait.

We would just like to thank all the teachers that helped us throughout this topic, the panel that gave up their time to interview us and provide us with constructive feedback.

We forget how important sleep is to us.

Teens need 8-10 hours of sleep per night but many are surviving on much less by staying up using computers, iPhones, iPods, etc., which is doing more harm than you realise. Sleep is a vital indicator of overall health and well-being.

To further complicate matters, stimulants like coffee and energy drinks, alarm clocks, and external lights—including those from electronic devices—interfere with our "Circadian Rhythm" or natural sleep/wake cycle.

If you've ever spent a night tossing and turning, you already know how you'll feel the next day — tired, cranky, and out of sorts. But missing out on the recommended 7 to 9 hours of sleep does more than make you feel groggy and grumpy. The long term effects of sleep deprivation are real. It drains your mental abilities and puts your physical health at real risk. It's known to be a contributing factor for many chronic health conditions, including: Diabetes, Heart disease, Obesity and Obstructive Sleep Apnoea

Sleep is a habit, just like eating healthy and exercise.

While everyone misses a few hours of sleep sometimes, chronic lack of sleep is part of an unhealthy lifestyle and can increase your risk for serious health concerns.

If you have concerns about your sleep, please seek help from your Doctor. Cheers! Denise Leed.
KFC – Kids Friday Club

KFC for Term 2 finished well last week with a surprise visit from 2 little lambs to compliment our story time of the Good Shepherd!

Red and Yellow teams (True Love and Big Bananas) took out the balls in the bucket prizes for this term. Well done everyone – the tallys were close!

Sunday was a special celebration in Raywood complete with helium balloons and a small group of children taking part.

DVD’s that have been borrowed from the KFC library can be returned to the Office for Robyn Falls to collect.

Dates for term 3 should be finalised in next week’s newsletter.

During Term 3, KFC will be running its annual fund raiser for charity. We usually do a ‘Loose Change Challenge’ (collect loose change) but this year we are supporting 2 Pairs Each. Josh Berry, a 12 year old boy, started 2 Pairs each when he was 9 in an endeavour to care for the homeless by supplying pairs of warm socks. His aim is to provide 50,000 pairs of socks and is on track with nearly 19,000 pairs already. So, KFC children can either collect Loose Change to buy socks or purchase the socks themselves and bring them to KFC during Term 3.

CALLING ALL YEAR 7-10 ART STUDENTS – EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST:

The Loddon Shire are providing six Year 7-10 East Loddon students the opportunity to attend a Street Art Camp in Melbourne along with students from Boort, Wedderburn and Pyramid Hill Colleges. You will meet amazing working artists who will teach you to create stencil art, freehand spraying and typography and junk sculptures. The camp will run from 25th – 27th July, 2018. Loddon Shire have generously subsidised this camp to a cost of $50, however, students attending will also need spending money for some meals and their MYKI card. Year 7-10 students are invited to submit their expression of interest to attend this camp via a form that can be collected from the office – good luck!!
